Take the 'Little Joe' Challenge

In 2016, 'Little Joe' Aiello, then a spry 89 year-old bartender at the Country Club of Rochester wanted to do something exciting and impactful to celebrate his 90th birthday.

He set a goal to be the single largest fundraiser for 21 Stories and he went far beyond, raising over $41,000 for the Scouts. He also promised to return! Join 91 year old 'Little Joe' this spring on the edge of Kodak tower.

If Little Joe can do it, you can too!

MAY 18, 2018

TEAM-UP RAPPEL DOWN

Sponsor a team of five rappellers from your business. Each rappeller or team then sets up a fundraising page/goal. The Team Sponsor agrees to round up whatever the rappellers cannot raise on their own up to the minimum $4,000 sponsorship.

Team Sponsors registering on or before April 1st will have a company logo on t-shirts, our website and other event materials.

ON FRIDAY, MAY 18TH, 2018 . . .

the Boy Scouts will hold our 9th annual 21 Stories for Scouts Rappelling Event on the side of one of the most iconic buildings in Rochester - Kodak Tower. Be among the first to accept the challenge!

With a $1,000 tax deductible donation, you can get the once-in-a-lifetime thrill of descending the facade of the building - and positively affecting the lives of hundreds of youth in the City of Rochester.

Because it's run by the Scouts for the Scouts, 100% of your donation goes directly toward underwriting outreach programs for urban youth including over 40 after-school programs and summer camp experiences. The Seneca Waterways Council, Boy Scouts of America serves nearly 11,000 young people in greater Rochester and Finger Lakes each year with leadership and character development programs that prepare young people for life.
