Scout Law Scavenger Hunt

A scout is TRUSTWORTHY. This means you are honest and can be relied on. For example, if your neighbor went on vacation you could be trusted with their spare key. Bring me a key.

A scout is LOYAL. Which means you are dedicated to a person or group. Bring me something that shows you’re loyal. It can be an award belt loop trophy or metal.

A scout is HELPFUL. You are giving and ready to help. I bet you and your family have donated money to a charity. Bring me a bill of any kind 1 5 10 20 50 or 100.

A scout is FRIENDLY. You are kind and pleasant to your friends. Bring me a picture of a friend or a gift from a friend.

A scout is COURTEOUS. You are polite and have good manners. For example, when you are eating you always use a napkin. Bring me a napkin.

A scout is KIND. You always behave in a way that shows you care. If a family member was sick you would bring them something to make them feel better. What is it? Go get it now.

A scout is OBEYEDIENT. You are willing to follow directions or orders. A scout will clean his room if told to do so. A dog will sit when told to sit. Bring me a dog.

A scout is CHEERFUL. You are happy and a joy to be around. You smile and make others smile. Bring me a happy face.

A scout is THRIFTY. We are learning how to use our money and resources carefully, not wastefully. Many families use coupons to help save money. Bring me a coupon.

A scout is BRAVE. Many Scouts have or will need to face danger or fear. When a scout gets hurt he or she will be brave and keep going. But they may need some first aid. Bring me a Band-Aid or gauze.

A scout is CLEAN. You all are learning to keep your home and belongings safe from germs and dirt. Bring me a broom.

A scout is REVERENT. It means you show respect. It means you are devoted to a person or group of people. Some show reverence to one God or person. Some show reverence to many gods or a group of people. Some show reverence to their family. Bring me something that represents your religion or bring me a family photo.