

What to Bring to Sleepover Camp

Sleepover Camp is a TON of fun, especially if you come prepared with the right items. Below is a checklist of items you should bring as an individual, and items your group could find helpful!

Individual Needs

In your DAY PACK

Items you should plan to carry with you all day

- Water Bottle (Quart Sized)
- Hat
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen
- Bug Spray
- Flashlight
- Rain gear
- Swim Suit
- Closed Toe Shoes
- Pocket Knife (for those who have earned their Whittlin Chit)

In your DUFFEL BAG

Items you will need for your campsite

- Sleeping Bag
- Sleeping Pad
- Pillow
- 2 Changes of Clothes
- 3-4 Pairs of Socks
- Toiletries
  - Toothbrush and Paste
  - Soap/Shampoo
  - Comb
- Full Scout Uniform
- Cold Weather Clothing
- Health Forms Part A, B, and C

Group Needs

- Tents – Enough to sleep all of your people. Scouts can share tents with each other, or Scout/Parent can share
  - Screen Tent – These are great for the campsite!
    - First Aid Kit for your Site
